

ARTICLE 23 SALARIES

23.1 Policy. The parties of this Agreement recognize the importance of providing appropriate compensation as an essential component in the delivery of quality higher education programs and quality scholarship that is recognized nationally and internationally. To that end, the parties are committed to working toward the common goals of the University of Central Florida. This policy statement is not subject to Article 20, Grievance Procedure.

23.2 Promotion Increases.

(a) Promotion salary increases shall be granted in an amount equal to 9.0% of the employee's previous year's base salary rate in recognition of promotion to one of the ranks described below:

- (1) To Assistant in _____, Associate in _____, and Assistant University Librarian;
- (2) To Associate Professor, Associate Scholar/Scientist/Engineer, and Associate University Librarian; and
- (3) To Professor, Scholar/Scientist/Engineer, and University Librarian.

(b) Each year, promotion salary increases shall be effective on August 8th for promotion awarded earlier in that calendar year.

~~23.3 One-time Merit Bonuses. Upon ratification of this article, the University shall provide one-time merit bonuses to educational and general (E&G) funded employees based on the employee's 2008 annual evaluation, as follows, who remain employed by the University at the date of BOT ratification of this Article:~~

- ~~(a) If the employee's 2008 overall annual evaluation was Outstanding, the employee shall receive $1,800.~~
- ~~(b) If the employee's 2008 overall annual evaluation was Above Satisfactory, the employee shall receive $1,200.~~
- ~~(c) If the employee's 2008 overall annual evaluation was Satisfactory, Conditional, or Unsatisfactory, or the employee was not in an employment relationship with the University on December 31, 2008, the employee shall receive $0.~~
- ~~(d) If the employee was in an employment relationship with the University on December 31, 2008, but did not receive a 2008 annual evaluation, the employee shall receive a 2008 annual evaluation based on the departmental standards and procedures that were in place as of December 31, 2007, and shall be eligible for a one-time merit bonus based on the result of that evaluation and parts (a) (c) of this section.~~

~~(e) If an employee's position is less than 1.0 FTE, the bonus shall be prorated. Contract and grant (C&G) and auxiliary funded employees are also eligible, but any bonuses provided in such cases shall be paid from the appropriate contract, grant, or auxiliary revenues, if such increases are provided by the granting agency.~~

~~23.4 Across the Board Salary Increases. Effective August 8, 2009, the University shall provide a one half of one percent (0.5%) base salary increase to each E&G employee whose overall annual evaluation for 2008 was Satisfactory or higher and who remains employed by the University on the date of BOT ratification of this Article. Contract and grant (C&G) and auxiliary funded employees are also eligible, but any increase provided in such cases shall be paid from the appropriate contract, grant, or auxiliary revenues, if such increases are provided by the granting agency.~~

~~23.5—Market Equity Salary Increases. Effective August 8, 2009, for 2009-2010 year, the University shall provide an amount equal to one half of one percent (0.5%) of the May 6, 2009 base salary of all E&G employees for market equity salary increases. This amount is defined herein as the Available Market Equity for the University. Market equity increases shall be distributed according to the following criteria and procedures. Contract and grant (C&G) and auxiliary funded employees are also eligible, but any increase provided in such cases shall be paid from the appropriate contract, grant, or auxiliary revenues, if such increases are provided by the granting agency.~~

~~(a) — Eligibility. An employee is eligible under this Section if he or she has been employed by the University since at least January 1, 2006, has received a three-year average annual evaluation of Satisfactory or above for the 2006 through 2008 period; was still employed by the University on May 6, 2009, and is likewise still employed by the University on the date of BOT ratification. An in-unit employee in a visiting position is not eligible for the market equity portion of the increase outlined in this Section.~~

~~(b) — Distribution.~~

~~(1) — Each employee's 3-year average annual evaluation shall be calculated by assigning a numerical value of 4 for Outstanding, 3 for Above Satisfactory, 2 for Satisfactory, 1 for Conditional, and 0 for Unsatisfactory to each of the employee's last three annual evaluations and calculating the average (arithmetic mean). An average of 1.5 or higher, but less than 2.5 shall be defined as a 3-year average annual evaluation of Satisfactory. An average of 2.5 or higher, but less than 3.5, shall be defined as a 3-year average annual evaluation of Above Satisfactory. An average of 3.5 or higher shall be defined as a 3-year average annual evaluation of Outstanding.~~

~~(2) — A Target Salary for each employee whose 3-year average annual evaluation is Satisfactory shall be defined as at least equal to eighty percent (80%) of the mean salary found in the most current CUPA HR Salary Survey data available for continuing employees in the same rank and discipline, adjusted pro-rata for the length of the employee's contract year. A Target Salary for each employee whose 3-year average annual evaluation is Above Satisfactory shall be defined as at least equal to one hundred percent (100%) of the mean salary found in the most current CUPA HR Salary Survey data available for continuing employees in the same rank and discipline, adjusted pro-rata for the length of the employee's contract year. A Target Salary for each employee whose 3-year average annual evaluation is Outstanding shall be defined as at least equal to one hundred thirty percent (130%) of the mean salary found in the most current CUPA HR Salary Survey data available for continuing employees in the same rank and discipline, adjusted pro-rata for the length of the employee's contract year. If an employee's discipline is not included in the most current CUPA HR Salary Survey data availability, the University and the UFF shall use alternate data at their discretion to jointly determine a Target Salary for that employee.~~

~~(3) — The Needed Market Equity for the University is defined herein as the sum, across all employees eligible for a Market Equity Increase, of either the employee's Target Salary less that employee's May 6, 2009, base salary or zero; whichever is larger.~~

~~(4) — The Available Market Equity Ratio is defined herein as the Available Market Equity for the University divided by the Needed Market Equity for the University.~~

~~(5) — The Market Equity Increase for an eligible employee shall be equal to the Available Market Equity Ratio multiplied by either the employee's Target Salary less that employee's May 6, 2009, base salary or zero, whichever is larger.~~

23.3 Fiscal year 2009-2010.

(a) Bonuses. Effective upon ratification of this article, the University shall provide a one-time bonus of $1,500 to each educational and general (E&G) funded employee who was in an employment relationship with the University on July 1, 2009, whose 2008 annual evaluation, if provided, was Satisfactory or above, and who remains employed by the University at the date of BOT ratification of this Article. Those employed on or after December 23, 2008 will be assigned a Satisfactory rating for the purposes of granting a bonus. If an employee's position is less than 1.0 FTE, the bonus shall be prorated. Contract and grant (C&G) and auxiliary funded employees are also eligible, but any bonuses provided in such cases shall be paid from the appropriate contract, grant, or auxiliary revenues, if such increases are provided by the granting agency.

(b) Merit Salary Increases. Effective August 8, 2009, the University shall provide a merit pool to each department/unit equal to one percent (1%) of the total base salary of employees in the department/unit as of May 6, 2009. All employees who are not members of a department/unit shall be grouped together and treated as a department/unit for the purpose of calculating and providing merit salary increases. Merit salary increases shall be provided to eligible employees in each department/unit according to the following criteria and procedures.

(1) Eligibility. For the 2009-2010 year, an employee is eligible under this Section if he or she received a Satisfactory or above on his or her 2008 annual evaluation and is still employed at the university on the date of BOT ratification. Those employed on or before December 22, 2008 who have not received an 2008 evaluation shall be provided one. An employee who was first employed on or after December 23, 2008, shall not receive a merit increase. C&G and auxiliary funded employees are also eligible, but any increases provided in such cases shall be paid from the appropriate contract, grant, or auxiliary revenues, if such increases are provided by the granting agency.

(2) Distribution. The merit salary increases for eligible employees shall be calculated as a percentage of their base salaries. Such increases shall be distributed proportionately to those employees in a ratio of .5 for Satisfactory, 1.0 for Above Satisfactory and 1.7 for Outstanding.

23.6 Incentive Award Programs. Incentive Award Programs shall be implemented as set forth below, to recognize and promote faculty excellence and productivity that respond to and support the mission of the University of Central Florida. The president shall give the final approval for awards to the successful faculty. Regardless of the contract length (9 months through 12 months), award recipients shall receive a $5,000 increase to their base salary retroactive to the start of the employment agreement for the academic year in which the award was given. These awards shall be made according to existing criteria and procedures.

(a) UCF-Teaching Incentive Program. The UCF-Teaching Incentive Program ("UCF-TIP") rewards teaching productivity and excellence. For the 2009-2010 year the University shall award up to forty (40) new UCF-TIP awards (additional awards may be given as a result of rounding, e.g. a college allocated 5.5 awards would round up to 6 awards) in addition to recycled awards.

(b) UCF-Research Incentive Award program. The UCF-Research Incentive Award (“UCF-RIA”) program recognizes outstanding research, scholarly, or creative activity that advances the body of knowledge in a particular field. For the 2009-2010 year the University shall award up to twenty (20) new UCF-RIA awards (additional awards may be given as a result of rounding, e.g. a college allocated 5.5 awards would round up to 6 awards) in addition to recycled awards.

(c) Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Program. The Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL) program recognizes success in research related to the scholarship of teaching and learning. For the 2009-2010 year, the University shall award up to ten (10) new SoTL awards in addition to recycled awards.

~~(d) Colleges whose allocation of any of the above awards would be less than one-half of one award (.50) and that received that award in the previous year would be ineligible to receive the award in the current year.~~

~~(e) If one or more new awards in the above categories are not distributed in a given year due to lack of applicants or the decision of the review committee not to make an award, the funds provided for the award or awards would be added to the funds available for the awards to be distributed across the university in the next year in which such awards are offered.~~

23.7 Awards of Distinction. The University shall implement the merit-based bonuses set forth below to recognize and promote faculty excellence and productivity that respond to and support the mission of the University of Central Florida.

(a) Trustee Chair Professorship. The UCF Trustee Chair Professorship is a multi-year appointment awarded to faculty with an extraordinary record of accomplishment in the three primary areas of academic endeavor: teaching, research and service. The objective of this appointment is to recognize and celebrate outstanding performance with a title and resources commensurate with accomplishment.

(1) Award recipients shall receive an annual stipend of $50,000 funded by the University. Up to $25,000 can be used as a salary supplement. These chairs have a five-year renewable appointment.

(2) For the 2009-2010 year, the University may award up to eight (8) Trustee Chair Professorships.

(3) These awards shall be made according to existing criteria and procedures.

(b) Pegasus Professor. The Pegasus Professor award recognizes excellence in the three primary areas of academic endeavor: teaching, research and service.

(1) Award recipients shall receive a one-time payment of $5,000 from Foundation funds as well as a Pegasus statue.

(2) For the 2009-2010 year, the University may award Pegasus Professor awards.

(3) These awards shall be made according to existing criteria and procedures.

(c) Excellence Awards

(1) Award recipients shall receive a one-time payment of $2,000.

(2) For the 2009-2010 year, the University shall award Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching awards, one (1) University Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, Excellence in Graduate Teaching awards, one (1) University Award for Excellence in Graduate Teaching, two (2) University Awards for Excellence in Faculty Academic Advising, one (1) University Award for Excellence in Professional Academic Advising, Distinguished Researcher awards, one (1) University Distinguished Research award, two (2) University Awards for Excellence in Professional Service, and one (1) Excellence in Librarianship award.

(3) These awards shall be made according to existing criteria and procedures.

23.8 Salary Increases for Employees Funded by Contracts and Grants.

(a) Employees on contracts or grants shall receive salary increases equivalent to similar employees on Education and General funding, provided that such salary increases are permitted by the terms of the contract or grant and adequate funds are available for this purpose in the contract or grant. In the event such salary increases are not permitted by the terms of the contract or grant, or in the event adequate funds are not provided, the president or president's representative shall seek to have the contract or grant modified to permit or fund such increases.

(b) Nothing contained herein shall prevent employees whose salaries are funded by grant agencies from being allotted raises higher than those provided in this Agreement if such increases are provided by the granting agency.

23.9 Administrative Discretion Increases. The University may provide Administrative Discretion Increases up to one percent (1%) of the total salary rate of employees who are in an employment relationship with the University on the 6th day of May, 2009. Any Administrative Discretion Increase provided to contract and grant (C&G) employees, any court-ordered or court-approved salary increase or any salary increase to settle a legitimate, broad-based employment dispute shall not be subject to the terms and limitations of this Section.

(a) The University may provide Administrative Discretion Increases for verified written offers of employment, special achievements, compression and inversion, equity and market equity considerations, and similar special situations, to employees in the bargaining unit.

(b) UFF Notification. At least 14 days prior to the effective date of any such increase, the University shall provide to the UFF a written notification of the increase which states the name of the employee, the rank and discipline of the employee, the amount of the increase, and the reason for the increase.

(c) The University's ability to provide Administrative Discretionary Increases shall expire on ~~June 30, 2011~~ December 31, 2010.

23.10 Report to Employees. All employees shall receive notice of their salary increases prior to implementation.

23.11 Grievability. The only issues to be addressed in a grievance filed pursuant to Article 20 alleging violation of this Article are whether there is unlawful discrimination under Article 6, or whether there is an arbitrary and capricious application of the provisions of one or more sections of this Article.

23.12 Type of Payment for Assigned Duties.

(a) Duties and responsibilities assigned by the University to an employee that do not exceed the available established FTE for the position shall be compensated through the payment of salary, not Other Personal Services (OPS) wages.

(b) Duties and responsibilities assigned by the University to an employee that are in addition to the available established FTE for the position shall be compensated through OPS wages, not salary.

23.13 Twelve-Month Payment Option. The parties agree that a twelve-month payment option for 9-month employees shall be offered. The plan shall allow for employees to select a fixed savings amount to be deducted from each of the nineteen (19) full bi-weekly paychecks received during the Fall and Spring semesters with a change in that amount to account for those paychecks from which double premiums are deducted. The total savings shall be returned to the employee in equal amounts for the five (5) full bi-weekly paychecks received during the Summer semester. The University shall provide an online calculator and assistance as reasonable, taking into account time and resources, to assist the employee in determining a savings amount and fixed reduction amount that will allow the employee's net paychecks to remain approximately level across the 24 pay periods. Pay received for supplemental summer assignments shall be unaffected by this plan.

23.14 Administrative Salary Stipends. A temporary salary increase which is provided to an employee as compensation for performing a specific, titled administrative function shall be permitted under this agreement as an Administrative Salary Stipend. At least 14 days prior to the effective date of any Administrative Salary Stipend, the University shall provide UFF a written notification of the stipend which states the name of the employee, the rank and discipline of the employee, the amount of the stipend, and the reason for the stipend. If all or part of the stipend is later added to the employee's base salary, the amount so converted shall be treated as an Administrative Discretion Increase during the year in which the conversion takes place and shall be subject to Section 23.7.

23.15 Salary Rate Calculation and Payment. The biweekly salary rate of employees serving on twelve (12) month (calendar year) appointments shall be calculated by dividing the calendar year salary rate by 26.1 pay periods.
