 114 provost or his or her designee shall give final approval for awards to successful faculty.

115 Each academic year, the University shall make available to eligible employees 115
 116 Incentive Awards. The awards shall be distributed to awardees in the next award cycle after 117 ratification of this document as set forth below. Regardless of contract length (9 months 118 through 12 months), award recipients shall receive a one-time award of $5,000 as soon as 119 practicable and a $5,000 increase to their salary effective at the beginning of the 120 succeeding academic year. Employees on visiting and other temporary appointments are 121 not eligible for incentive awards. Employees on non-E&G funding will be eligible for the 122 increase depending on availability of funds. All full-time employees in the appropriate
 123 discipline with at least four academic years of continuous, non-OPS service at UCF 124 immediately prior to the current academic year are eligible.

125 (a) UCF-Teaching Incentive Program. The UCF-Teaching Incentive Program (“UCF-126 TIP”) rewards teaching productivity and excellence. Each academic year the University shall 127 make available up to fifty-five (55) UCF-TIP awards to eligible employees. The UCF-TIP
 128 award recognizes employee contributions to UCF’s key goals of offering the best
 129 undergraduate education available in Florida and achieving international prominence in key 130 programs of graduate study. Employees applying for TIPs must meet current eligibility

132 (b) UCF-Research Incentive Award Program. The UCF-Research Incentive Award
 133 (“UCF-RIA”) program recognizes outstanding research, scholarly, or creative activity that 134 advances the body of knowledge in a particular field, including interdisciplinary research
 135 and collaborations, as well as using evidence-based methods to research effective teaching
 136 and student learning in higher education (i.e., at the university level). Each academic year
 137 the University shall make available up to sixty (60) UCF-RIA awards to eligible employees.

Commented [CR12]: Proposing maintenance of 115 Incentive Awards.

Commented [CR15]: SoTLs are consolidated with RIAs. Next subsection is stricken.

Commented [CR16]: BOT proposes 60 RIAs.

138 The UCF-RIA award recognizes employee contributions to UCF's key goal of achieving 139 international prominence in research and creative activities.

~~140 (c) Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Awards (SoTLs). SoTLs recognize discovery, 141 reflection, and using evidence-based methods to research effective teaching and student 142 learning in higher education (i.e., at the university level). SoTL goes beyond teaching based 143 on evidence for specific teaching and learning practices. While the implementation of SoTL 144 outcomes may result in teaching excellence and increased teaching effectiveness, this 145 award recognizes scholarly efforts beyond teaching excellence. The University shall make 146 available up to five SoTL awards.~~

~~147 (cd) Applications for Incentive Awards. Applications shall be completed online. These 148 awards shall be made according to the criteria or procedures listed on the Faculty
149 Excellence website. Eligible employees may apply for both TIP and RIA awards in the same 150 academic year; however, they may only receive one Incentive Award in an academic year.
151 In the event that an employee is selected for both TIP and RIA awards in the same
152 academic year, the process for finalizing awards selections is provided in 23.6 (e) (1) j.~~

153 (e) Incentive Award Selection.

154 (1) TIPs/RIAs. College or unit committees for the TIP and RIA award programs shall 155 be elected by and from the unit employees. The committees shall equitably represent the 156 departments or units within them. Employees who plan to apply in the current cycle for a
157 particular award shall not be eligible to serve on the committee. A committee chairperson 158 for each incentive award program shall be elected by and from the college/unit committee.
159 The chairperson shall charge the committee that members shall only consider the merits of 160 the application. No additional outside information or discussion of position, e.g., instructor 161 vs. tenure track employee, past awards, current salary, etc., may be considered, nor may 162 additional criteria be used. The committee shall review the award applications and shall 163 submit a ranked list of recommended employees to the dean or dean's representative. In 164 ranking the applicants, committee members shall only consider the merits of the application.
165 All information available to the committee and all deliberations of the committee, except for 166 the ranked list of recommended employees, are to be held in strict confidence.

167 a. Each committee member shall review all applications and transmit a 168 preliminary ranking to the committee chair. Committee members may rank as many 169 applicants as they deem merit the award, with the highest rank given to the top candidate
170 (i.e., the highest rank equals the number of applicants, N), the next highest rank being N-1, 171 and so on. Applications that are not deemed acceptable for an award by a committee 172 member shall be left unranked in that committee member's rankings.

173 b. In larger colleges or units, subcommittees may be formed from the committee
174 at-large in the interest of efficient evaluation of the incentive award applications. Each 175 subcommittee must include at least three members, and every member of the committee at-176 large must serve on a subcommittee. The applications to be reviewed shall be equitably
177 partitioned among the subcommittees. The subcommittees shall follow the ranking 178 procedure outlined in (a) above to determine which applications they recommend to the 179 committee at-large. Then the committee at-large shall be convened to review the 180 applications recommended by the subcommittees.

181 c. The committee chair shall convene the committee (at-large) and review their 182 initial rankings. Discussion shall be limited to information contained in the application and 183 may focus on applicants with few or dispersed rankings.

184 d. Following this discussion, the committee shall use a secret ballot to rank 185 candidates' applications using the procedure outlined in (a) above.

Commented [CR17]: For added clarity.

186 e. A majority of voting committee members present must rank an application for 187 that employee to be eligible for an incentive award.

188 f. The application with the highest mean rank (i.e., the sum of the applicant's 189 rankings divided by the number of committee members present) shall have the highest 190 priority for an incentive award, the application with the next highest mean rank the next 191 highest priority, and so on, until all applications who received rankings by a majority of 192 committee members present are ranked in order.

193 g. In the case of T eligible applications with tied mean rank remaining for the 194 final T-1 or fewer available award(s), the procedure outlined in (a) above, with T being the 195 highest possible rank, shall be used to break the ties. The ranking process outlined in (a) 196 above shall be used as many times in succession as necessary until all such ties are 197 resolved and a final ranked list is complete.

198 h. The committee chair shall transmit this ranked list to the dean or dean's 199 representative, or unit head who reviews and approves the awards. If the selection 200 committee recommends awards fewer than the number of awards available or if the dean or 201 unit head does not approve an award from the list submitted by the selection committee,
202 then the award(s) shall be retained in the same college or unit for one additional cycle 203 before it is returned to the overall pool for apportionment.

204 i. For purposes of TIP/RIA selection as stated above, "college" shall also 205 include the group of employees whose primary assignment is in the College of 206 Undergraduate Studies, the College of Graduate Studies, an institute, or center. One Two 207 TIPs and one two RIAs shall be available to the employees grouped together as described 208 here. The college committee shall consist of a member from each of the units represented.

209 j. If an employee is selected to receive both TIP and RIA awards in the same 210 academic year, that employee, say, Employee A, shall be asked to choose to receive either
211 the TIP or RIA award and may be eligible to apply for and receive the other Incentive Award
212 in the next academic year. Employee A's dean shall use the committee rankings to 213 determine which employee should receive the TIP or RIA award that was not chosen by 214 Employee A.

215 23.76 Trustee Chair Professor, Pegasus Professor, and Excellence Awards.

232 to other scholars at UCF. Applications will be reviewed by a committee consisting of one 233 Trustee Chair, one Pegasus Professor, the Chair of the Faculty Senate, and the Vice

Commented [CR18]: The work of the committee is to rank applications rather than the applicants who submit them.

Commented [CR19]: For clarity.
